

CHAPTER 4 / Following Routes on a Map

Using information from the text and looking at the map below, answer the following questions on a separate piece of paper.

- (1) Which exploration route went farthest north? South? East? West?
- (2) Using a political map of the United States and Canada, name the present-day states and Canadian provinces through which the Corps of Discovery passed.
- (3). Using a political map of the United States and Canada, name the present-day states and Canadian provinces through which David Thompson passed.

Critical Thinking

Compare and contrast the expedition routes of David Thompson and the Corps of Discovery. What are the similarities? What are the differences? What do you think accounts for these differences?
