Visions of the Big Sky

Painting and Photographing the Northern Rocky Mountain West

By Dan Flores

The volume features 140 color and black-and-white illus., ranging from prehistoric rock art to modernist painting, and from charismatic wildlife scenes to classic landscape. They demonstrate the preponderance of Indians and wilderness in the region's art and explore the work of individuals as diverse as Edward Sheriff Curtis and Ansel Adams.

Hardcover, 248 pages, $45.00

Buffalo Bill

Scout, Showman, Visionary

By Steve Friesen

William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody was America's first celebrity. He lived during a time of great geographic and technological expansion, a time when American mass media became dominant. Cody was there at every step, the right person at the right place at the right time. It was through those brilliant efforts that Cody the man became Buffalo Bill the celebrity and, eventually, Buffalo Bill the legend.

Softcover, 176 pages, 250 color and b&w illus. and photos, $22.95
