Biographical Poems Celebrating Amazing Montana Women

Enduring Understandings: There is no single “woman’s experience”; women’s lives are diverse. People can make a difference in their communities.

Grade Level: 4th–6th

Activity Description: This lesson combines the subjects of history and poetry into a single lesson. Students will read short biographies about specific Montana women and use them to create short biographical poems.

Objectives: Students will

■ Read and gather information on actual people important to Montana’s history, identifying significant data and inferring meaning from text.
■ Review parts of speech (nouns, verbs, adjectives, prepositional phrases)
■ Use a poem template to write a poem using the biographical information they collected.

Time: Two 50-minute sessions, plus a homework assignment if more time is needed to complete the assignment

Content Standards:

ELA.L.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

ELA.R.2 Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

ELA.R.9 Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

ELA.R.10 Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

ELA.W.10 Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Lesson Plan Materials:
■ Reference list of Montana Women Biographies (below)
■ Biography Poem Template (below)
■ Biography Reading Guide Worksheet (below)
■ Completed Biography Reading Guide sample for Belle Fligelman Winestine (below)

Classroom/School Library Materials:
■ Women’s History Matters, montanawomenshistory.org (website)
■ Computer(s) with Internet access (optional)
■ Notepaper
■ Pencils

Pre-Lesson Preparation

■ If your students will not have access to the Internet to read the biographies, print the biographies.
■ Print copies of the Biography Reading Guide (worksheet) and Biography Poem Template (one per student).
■ Print one copy of the completed Biography Reading Guide Sample.

Assessment/evaluation: Successful completion of the lesson components: biography notes and biography poem. Students should be evaluated on the thoroughness of their work. Encourage creativity, and strength and precision of word choice. This lesson should elicit creativity in expression as well as attentiveness to factual details.

Procedure

Day One:
- Introduce the activity to students.
- Have each student select a woman from the biographies list to study.
- Provide students with printed biographies or allow them to access information online.
- Have students research their woman and complete the biography worksheet.

Day Two:
- Hand out the poem template.
- Review the template as a class, including parts of speech.
- Share the completed biographical worksheet for Belle Fligelman Winestine. Read the model poem as a class.
- Have students create their own poems and share them with the class (either by reading or posting them on a bulletin board).

Extension Activity: Have students create a portrait of the woman they studied and/or illustrate a scene from her life. Display the portraits and poems in a classroom exhibit. Invite other classes or parents to attend your “gallery opening” and/or poetry reading.

Parts of Speech

Noun—a person, place, object, emotion or quality. Examples: the girl (person), a mountain (place), the car (object), sadness (emotion), beauty (quality). Nouns can be general or specific. For example: a person (general) may also be a jazz musician (specific).

Proper Noun—a noun that is also a name of a specific person, place, or object. Examples: Jeannette Rankin (person); Helena, Montana (place); Girls’ Guide to Camping (book title).

Adjective—a word that describes or tells more about a noun, such as the noun’s color, shape, texture, age, feelings, and so on. Examples (adjectives in italics): the brown horse, the selfish giant, the tired grandmother, the ancient city, the worried teacher.

Verb—a word that expresses the action taken by a noun. Verbs change form according to when the action took place or will take place. For example: She walks. She walked.

Prepositional Phrases—Prepositions are words that help locate a noun or relate one noun to another. Examples: on, in, under, from, across, beside, between, behind, over, next to, from, about, with, without, by, to, and away. Prepositional phrases are a grouping of words that starts with a preposition and ends with a noun, such as under the couch, beside the waterfall, from a lost city, without her friends. They come after nouns or verbs.

Use this information as you follow the model to write your own poem.

Montana Women Biographies

Note: A good starting point for research are books in your library (see materials list) and the Montana Historical Society’s Women’s History Matters website (montanawomenshistory.org). Students may also need to search for information online. As of 2019, credible information on all of these women was available on the Internet. This is an opportunity to work with students to evaluate the credibility of websites and teach them how search for information (for example, students may need to add the word “biography” or “Montana” after an individual’s name to find good sites.) There are also links to more information on several of these women on the Montana’s Biography web page, https://mhs.mt.gov/education/MontanaBiographies.
