

Montana Historical Society Publication Program
Measurable Objectives for the 2019 Biennium
Goal	Measurable Objectives	Current status of Measures
To continue publication and distribution of Montana The Magazine of Western History, the state's award-winning quarterly history journal and the only one of its kind, for readers throughout Montana, in all 50 states, and 17 foreign countries. During FY 2017 the Montana The Magazine of Western History will be celebrating 66 years of continuous publication.	This objective can be measured by the quarterly—Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter—appearance of the magazine in mailboxes and on newsstands.	Quarterly magazine in production stage
To continue operation of the Montana Historical Society Press, review 10 book-length manuscripts and proposals, edit and produce up to 3 books each year.	This objective can be measured by the appearance in stores of up to 3 new MHS Press books each year.	Reviewing manuscripts and proposals to edit and produce books
To capture readership of 45,000 through physical distribution of copies to MHS members, subscribers, and schools and libraries and use on JSTOR, EBSCO, and ProQuest databases	This objective can be measured by looking at print run, survey information, educational copies, back issue sale figures, and database analytics.	Distribution in progress