| UniqueIdentificationNumber | Address                           | Information   | SanbornSheetNumber |
|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|----------------------------|
| 1                                  | 113 North Elm                     | 1930: James and Anna Harris owned their home on the north side of Anaconda. The couple had seven children, four boys and three girls. James worked as a switchman for the smelter.  | 1                          |
| 2                                  | 113 North Elm Rear                | 1930: Raymond and George Ellis with their sisterBirdella Parnell and her daughter Betty, all lived behindthe Harris family home on the Northside. The siblingslived with their elderly mother, Elizabeth Ellis, a whitewoman. | 1                          |
| 3                                  | 416 West Pennsylvania             | 1930: Pirl Stovall lived with his wife Susie and their son Pirl Jr. here in 1930. Pirl worked as a driver for the smelter.  | 1                          |
| 4                                  | 114 North Maple                   | 1930: Ora and his wife Carrie Dennis owned their home. The couple lived with their two sons, Avis and Tibbs. Ora worked as a driver for the smelter.  | 2                          |
| 5                                  | 112 North Maple                   | 1930: Bryant and Leola Barker lived here with their eight year old son Bryant Jr. Bryant Sr. worked as a janitor for a local bank.  | 2                          |
| 6                                  | 110 North Maple                   | 1930: Thomas and Frances Walker rented this home in 1930. Thomas worked as a janitor for the smelter.   | 2                          |
| 7                                  | 115 ½ North Maple                 | 1930: William and Ethel lived here with their six year old daughter Marion in 1930. William worked as a janitor.  | 2                          |
| 8                                  | 316 West Pennsylvania (Mainville) | 1930: Raymond Brown and his wife Minnie lived here with their children Betty and Raymond Jr. Raymond worked for the smelter.  | 2                          |
| 9                                  | 122 North Locust                  | 1930: Saphronie Brown, a 70 year old woman lived here in a duplex like house with and elderly white couple.   | 2                          |
| 10                                 | 114* North Locust                 | 1930: Ebe and John Johnston rented their home in 1930. John worked for the smelter.   | 2                          |
| 12                                 | 121 North Locust                  | 1930: Jerry and Emma Harding lived here with a black boarder, William Harper. Jerry and William worked as porters for a barber shop.  | 2                          |
| 13                                 | 113 North Locust                  | 1930: Millard and Tina Rackets lived here with their nine year old daughter Edna. Millard worked for the smelter.   | 2                          |
| 14                                 | 200 North Hickory                 | 1930: Robert Smith lived here with white boarders. He worked for the smelter.   | 2                          |
| 15                                 | 108 North Hickory                 | 1930: Cora Irwin lived with a black boarder named Wyatt Jones. Cora worked as a cook for a local boarding house.  | 2                          |
| 16                                 | 104-106 North Hickory             | 1930: 87 year old Nettie Gibbons lived at 104 N. Hickory alone in 1930. Her neighbors at 106 N. Hickory were Louis and Ophelia Felder.  | 2                          |
| 17                                 | 224 West Commercial               | 1910: Alonzo Leatherbury, James Aldridge, and Charles Cooper rented this home together in 1910. Alonzo ran the restaurant of the Montana Hotel for many years. Cooper and Aldridge worked for him there.                                      | 2                          |
| 18                                 | 114 West Commercial               | 1910: Benjamin Marshall and George Simmington lived here in 1910. Marshall was a janitor, and Simmington worked for the smelter.  | 3                          |
| 19                                 | 110 West Commercial               | 1910: William Brown lived here with a lodger, Phillis Gross, a cook for a private family.   | 3                          |

| 20 | 106 West Commercial | 1910: Savada Brown lived here, and worked as a cook for a private family.   | 3 |
|----|---------------------|---|---|
| 21 | 2 Main              | 1930: This was the location of the Hóm On Café, where Birdella Parnell worked as the head waitress.   | 3 |
| 22 | 8 Main              | 1930: Edward Shears lived here on Main Street, and worked for the smelter in 1910.  | 3 |
| 23 | 12 ½ Main           | 1930: William Radford worked as an engine driver for the smelter in 1930, and lived here at the address of the Autumn Leaf Black Club.  | 3 |
| 24 | 1 Main              | 1910: Benjamin Balt lived here with five white boarders. He worked as a porter for a hotel.   | 3 |
| 25 | 21 Main             | 1910: George Sutton and George Williams worked odd jobs around town and rented rooms near the corner of Main and Commercial.  | 3 |
| 26 | 104-106             | 1910: Lee Pleasant Driver's Saloon and Club Rooms. L.P. Driver was Anaconda's preeminent black businessman. He operated his bar and club for over 15 years. (See Driver Historic Property Record Form, and Driver Family Story Map in "Places" Tab) | 3 |
| 27 | 108 East Commercial | 1910: Wilton and Eva Dobbins lived here in 1910. Wilton worked as a saloon janitor, and Eva cooked for a private family.  | 3 |
| 28 | 120 East Commercial | 1910: Fred Johnson and William Webb rented rooms here in 1910. Johnson worked as a janitor, and Webb was employed by the smelter.   | 3 |
| 29 | 20 Oak              | 1910: Hattie Parker lived here with her sister Ella Walker and a black lodger, Jesse Anderson.  | 3 |
| 30 | 18 Oak              | 1910: This was the home of the George Ellis family in 1910. George Ellis Sr. was 50 in 1910 and worked for the smelter.   | 3 |
| 31 | 14 Oak              | 1910: William and Allie Rhodes rented this home with lodger George Glenn.   | 3 |
| 32 | 4 Oak               | 1910: 48 year old widow, Laura Hanson lived here alone.   | 3 |
| 33 | 2 Oak               | 1930: Charles and his son Chester Lankford lived here in 1930. Charles was 51 years old, and Chester was 18, both father and son worked for the smelter.  | 3 |
| 34 | 206 East Commercial | 1910: This appears to be a black boarding house. The 1910 census indicates that at least eight African Americans were living here. Their names appear in the census at this address.  | 3 |
| 35 | 305 East Front      | 1930: Reece and Edora Evans lived here with their five daughters and two sons. Reece worked for the smelter.  | 4 |
| 36 | 319 East Front      | 1910: Lewis and Blanche Hunter lived here with their daughter, Edna, and a black lodger, Grundy Hall. Lewis worked as janitor for a saloon.   | 4 |
| 37 | 304 East Commercial | 1910: Lizzie Newsome lived here with a black man named Walter Kincaid. Lizzie owned and operated a boarding house.  | 4 |
| 38 | 306 East Commercial | 1910: Harold Terrice lived here alone, and worked as janitor for a saloon.  | 4 |
| 39 | 316 East Commercial | 1910: George and Irene Carter lived here with their daughter Ivy. By 1930, Irene would live here with her Ivy's son Frank Marshall.   | 4 |
| 40 | 416 East Commercial | 1930: Fred and Carrie Jackson rented this home. Fred worked for the smelter.  | 4 |

| 41         | 5 Chestnut                      | 1910: This was the home of James E. Bass. The  | 5  |
|------------|---------------------------------|--|----|
| 41         | 3 Chesthut                      | Carmen family, Gladstone, Spurgeon, and Ethel, lived   | 3  |
|            |                                 | with him. It is likely that James was the brother of   |    |
|            |                                 | Prominent Helena newspaper man Joseph Bass.  |    |
| 42         | 9 Chestnut                      | 1910: Pirl and Susie Stovall lived here in 1910 before   | 5  |
| 42         | 3 Chesthut                      | moving to the Northside neighborhood prior to 1930.  | 3  |
| 12         | 502 East Commercial             |  | 5  |
| 43         | 302 East Commercial             | 1910: This house was rented by William and Blanche Moore. William worked as a janitor at the time.         | 3  |
| 44         | 509 East Front                  |  | 5  |
| 44         | 509 East Front                  | 1930: Sister Gale and Vera Thompson, both in their   | 3  |
| 45         | 513 ½ East Front                | thirties, rented this home, and worked as laundresses.  1930: African Americans Belle Allen and Riley Robb | 5  |
| 43         | 313 72 East Fiolit              | •  | 3  |
| 46         | 7 Birch                         | lived here in a boarding house in 1930.  1930: James and Anna Matthews rented their home.                  | 5  |
| 40         | / Blich                         | James worked as janitor, while Anna worked for a   | 3  |
|            |                                 | private family.  |    |
| 47         | 11 Birch                        | 1910:Carrie Brown lived here with her husband William  | 5  |
| 47         | 11 Bilcii                       | Brown and his grandson Foster Whipple.   | 3  |
| 48         | 108 Walnut                      | 1910: William and Loretta Norman lived here in a white   | 9  |
| 40         | 108 Wallut                      | working class neighborhood. William worked for the   | 9  |
|            |                                 |  |    |
| 49         | 508 ½ West Park                 | smelter, and Loretta worked for a private family.  1910: Hattie Ellison lived here with her daughter Eva.  | 10 |
| 49         | 308 72 West Park                | Hattie worked as laundress.  | 10 |
| 50         | 504 ½ West Park                 | 1910: Preston and Ernestine Hayes are listed here in the   | 10 |
| 30         | 304 72 West Falk                | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·  | 10 |
| 51         | 508 West Park                   | 1910 Polk City Directory. 1910: Both 508 and 506 West Park appear to be the                                | 10 |
| 31         | 500 West Falk                   | residences of William and Bertha Johnson. Perhaps  | 10 |
|            |                                 |  |    |
| 52         | 506 West Park                   | they were rentals, or simply shared spaces.  1910: Both 508 and 506 West Park appear to be the             | 10 |
| 32         | 500 West Falk                   | residences of William and Bertha Johnson. Perhaps  | 10 |
|            |                                 | they were rentals, or simply shared spaces.  |    |
| 53         | 504 West Park                   | 1910: The George Ellis family is listed here in the city   | 10 |
| 33         | 304 West Falk                   | directory in 1910, several months after being listed by  | 10 |
|            |                                 | the census in 18 Oak.  |    |
| 54         | 222 West Park                   | 1910: Smelterman William Franklin lived here with  | 11 |
| J 4 | 222 West I alk                  | white Katherine Daly and her black children Thomas   | 11 |
|            |                                 | and Harriet.   |    |
| 55         | 112 Hickory                     | 1910: Olive Wallace and her teenage son Arthur lived   | 11 |
| 33         | 112 Thekory                     | here in 1910. Olive work as a janitor for the theater.   | 11 |
| 56         | 216 Hickory                     | 1930: This large apartment building housed several   | 11 |
| 30         | 210 Thekory                     | African Americans in 1930.   | 11 |
| 57         | 114 Main                        | 1910: Lewis Hunter lived hear sometime after the 1910  | 11 |
| 31         |                                 | census, as he listed here in the City Directory for the  | 11 |
|            |                                 | next few years.  |    |
| 58         | 122 Main                        | 1910: This was the Shields building; it was home to  | 11 |
| 30         | 122 1/14111                     | several African Americans who rented rooms.  | 11 |
| 59         | The Montana Hotel               | The Montana Hotel employed many black men and  | 11 |
|            | The Montana Hotel               | women as maids, porters, janitors, and kitchen and   | 11 |
|            |                                 | restaurant staff. Most notably, Alonzo Leatherbury   |    |
|            |                                 | Operated the fine dining establishment of the Montana  |    |
|            |                                 | Hotel for many years.  |    |
| 60         | 110 West 3 rd Street | 1930: Walter and Blanche Scott both worked as  | 11 |
|            | 110 2010 544001                 | masseurs in 1930, and lived here with their children   |    |
|            |                                 | Emma and Walter.   |    |
| 70         | 118 East Park                   | 1930: This was the location of the M&R Barber shop,  | 12 |
| . 0        | 110 Dubt I tilk                 | which Jerry Harding as a barber.   |    |
| 71         | 122 East Park                   | 1930:This was a boarding house where Fredrick  | 12 |
|            | 122 Lunt 1 un K                 |     |    |
|            |                                 | Johnson, a black janitor lived in 1930.  |    |

| 72  | 214 East Park                   | 214 E Park was the location of the First National Bank                         | 12 |
|-----|---------------------------------|--|----|
| 72  | 214 East Falk                   | building, between 1910 and 1930 several black men                              | 12 |
|     |                                 | worked at the bank for many years.   |    |
| 73  | Durston Block                   | Several black men worked as janitors for the Durston                           | 12 |
| 13  | Durston Block                   | Building.  | 12 |
| 74  | 209 Main                        | This was the location of Marien Reynolds Women's                               | 12 |
| /4  | 209 Maiii                       |  | 12 |
|     |                                 | Clothing boutique, The Vogue, and was one of only a                            |    |
| 7.5 | 210.74 :                        | few black owned businesses.  219 Main was the office of the Anaconda Standard, | 10 |
| 75  | 219 Main                        | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·  | 12 |
|     |                                 | which employed a number of black men as janitors or                            |    |
|     |                                 | engineers. Ed Reynolds, was also employed as a                                 |    |
|     |                                 | reporter, the only known black reporter for a white                            |    |
| = - | 212 F v 2Fd G                   | newspaper in the area.   | 10 |
| 76  | 212 East 3 rd Street | 1910: Smelterman Malachi Smith lived here alone in                             | 12 |
|     | 122.0                           | 1910.  | 10 |
| 77  | 123 Cedar                       | 1910: This was the location of Ethel Carmen's                                  | 13 |
|     |                                 | Hairdressers, one of only three black owned businesses,                        |    |
|     |                                 | two of which were owned by women. Marien Reynolds                              |    |
|     |                                 | being the other.   |    |
| 78  | 303 East Park                   | This was the 1930s location of Dr. MaCrae's Clothing                           | 13 |
|     |                                 | store, where Merian Reynolds was employed as a                                 |    |
|     |                                 | milliner for a time.   |    |
| 79  | 401 East Park                   | The Crystal Saloon, located here on the corner of Cedar                        | 13 |
|     |                                 | and Park, employed Mr. Allen McDonald, a local black                           |    |
|     |                                 | man.   |    |
| 83  | 404 East 3rd Street             | 1910: This was the home of William T. Moore. He                                | 13 |
|     |                                 | moved from his home on E Commercial sometime after                             |    |
|     |                                 | the census early that same year.   |    |
| 84  | 115 Chestnut                    | 1930: Carl and Nellda Rogers lived here with their son                         | 14 |
|     |                                 | William. Carl worked as a switchman for the Railway                            |    |
|     |                                 | Depot.   |    |
| 85  | 212 Birch                       | 1910: John and Delilah Miller lived here in 1910. John                         | 14 |
|     |                                 | worked for the smelter.  |    |
| 86  | 812 East Park                   | 1910: David and Sadie Williams lived here in 1910.                             | 15 |
|     |                                 | David worked for the smelter.  |    |
| 87  | 809 East Park                   | 1910: Johnson Crooms lived here with the white Banner                          | 15 |
|     |                                 | family. Crooms was a celebrated piano player for local                         |    |
|     |                                 | saloons.   |    |
| 88  | 214 Washington                  | 1910: Samuel and Jenny Ellison rented this home.                               | 15 |
|     |                                 | Samuel worked as a teamster for hire.  |    |
| 89  | 103 Washington                  | 1930: James and Emma Prince rented their home.                                 | 15 |
|     |                                 | James worked for the smelter.  |    |
| 90  | 516 Spruce                      | 1910: This was the longtime home of Frank Walker Sr.                           | 18 |
|     |                                 | and his family. (see Walker HPRF)  |    |
| 91  | 518 Spruce                      | 1910: For about a year, Frank Walker Jr. and his family                        | 18 |
|     |                                 | lived here next door to his father and mother.                                 |    |
| 92  | 606 Spruce                      | 1910: James and Lily Roy lived here with their sons                            | 18 |
|     |                                 | John and Joseph.   |    |
| 93  | 611 Walnut                      | 1910: William Simmons and his son William Jr. lived                            | 19 |
|     |                                 | here. William worked as a sleeping car porter for the                          |    |
|     |                                 | railroad.  |    |
| 94  | 420 Cherry                      | 1930: This was the home of the accomplished Reynolds                           | 22 |
|     |                                 | family. The father Claude, who may have been white,                            |    |
|     |                                 | worked for the smelter. His wife Merian owned and                              |    |
|     |                                 | operated The Vogue Women's clothing store and                                  |    |
|     |                                 | worked as milliner for other businesses. Their son Ed                          |    |
|     |                                 | was the black newspaper reporter for the Anaconda                              |    |
|     |                                 | Standard. There may have been a second son,                                    |    |

${\bf SANBORN\,MAP\,ADDRESS\,KEY,ANA\,CONDA,MT}$

|    |                                 | Roxborough Edwards, though he is likely the same as       |    |
|----|---------------------------------|---|----|
|    |                                 | Ed.   |    |
| 95 | 509 Cherry                      | 1910: This was the G.W. and Frances Baker household.      | 23 |
|    |                                 | G.W. worked for the smelter as a janitor.                 |    |
| 96 | 517 Cedar                       | 1910: This appears to have been the home of the           | 23 |
|    |                                 | Reynolds family in 1910, though they are also listed at E |    |
|    |                                 | 3 rd Street earlier that same year.            |    |
| 97 | 519 Birch                       | 1910: This is possibly the home of Omar Connell, The      | 24 |
|    |                                 | census data is unclear, and he may have lived at 519      |    |
|    |                                 | Alder   |    |
| 98 | 809 East 4 th Street | 1930: This was the home of Harry and Blanche              | 25 |
|    |                                 | Simmons in 1930.  |    |
| 99 | 519 Alder                       | 1910: This is possibly the home of Omar Connell, The      | 25 |
|    |                                 | census data is unclear, and he may have lived at 519      |    |
|    |                                 | Birch   |    |

