

CHAPTER 16 / Analyzing an Advertisement

The advertisement below appeared in the Billings Gazette on December 9, 1918. Look at the advertisement, and then answer the questions below.

Wounded, lying in No Man's Land—feverish from thirst—a stick of gum to him might have been a matter of life and death

For him and 2,000,000 others in France 155,945,000 sticks of the Adams brands of chewing gum have been sent overseas.

Please remember this the next time you can't get your favorite brand of Adams gum. If Adams Black Jack is missing from the counter, try Adams California Fruit, Adams Pepsin or Adams Yucatan. To a boy in No Man's Land one stick might have been worth the price of an empire.
